Coming from Bruges

Coming from Bruges, follow the E403 until you reach the E17. Take the E17, towards Rijsel (Lille). Then take the first exit "n°1 LAR" and go left on the express road heading for Moeskroen (Mouscron). Go straight ahead until the road leads through a tunnel. After driving through the tunnel, take the first exit rightwards (small road), then go immediately left again. (On the right side, you can already see an ESSO petrol station.) At the end of the road, turn right, pass the petrol station, go straight ahead at the traffic lights and under the railway bridge. From there on, notice the signposts to the industrial zone "La Martinoire", where we are situated. Follow the road bending to the left, towards the railway station.

Drive straight ahead for about 2 km, passing the railway station, the fire department, and later on the football club "Excelsior", until the main road fully bends to the left towards "La Martinoire". Drive under the railway bridge, and go straight ahead until you come to a roundabout. On the right side, there's Delabie (round tower).

Coming from Gent

Coming from Gent on the E17, follow "KORTRIJK-RIJSEL".

After passing Kortrijk (while driving on the E17), take exit "n° 1 LAR", and go left on the express road heading for Moeskroen (Mouscron). Go straight ahead until the road leads through a tunnel. After driving through the tunnel, take the first exit rightwards (small road), then go immediately left again. (On the right side, you can already see an ESSO petrol station.) At the end of the road, turn right, pass the petrol station, go straight ahead at the traffic lights and under the railway bridge. From there on, notice the signposts to the industrial zone "La Martinoire", where we are situated. Follow the road bending to the left, towards the railway station.
